Maria

Portraying the part of Maria Ranier is quite a different experience for Tracy who has often been cast as the "bad" girl. "It's exciting to be a happy character that people take to heart." Tracy has performed in 10 other musical shows. Some of her favorites being West Side Story, Guys and Dolls, and Carnival. She plans on attending Tangerine Tech, a.k.a. O.C.C. next year and hopes to expand her studies in Drama and Music. "I hope you enjoy our play as much as we have enjoyed doing it for you!"

TRACY JEANNE DE NISI

Captain

ROBERT ANTHONY HUERTA

Robert Anthony Huerta, a senior, has been in shows such as Fiddler on the Roof , Dessert Theatre, Annie Get Your Gun, Dinner Theatre and Actors Studio Festival. He is actively involved in Chamber Singers and the Jazz Choir. The Sound of Music is the high point in my senior year. There is so much love in this musical, I'm grateful to be a part of it."

Robert plans to continue his studies in Music and Drama and hopes to make it his life.

Max

James Brent, a senior, has been involved in drama since the 7th grade, and this is his seventh production at Saddleback. He has been in Diary of Anne Frank, Guys & Dolls, Annie Get Your Gun, Everyman, Curse You Jack Dalton and now, The Sound of Music. James plans on attending SMU next fall and becoming rich and famous.

Elsa

Kim Kautz is a senior and has been involved in drama for six years. She has participated in five productions at Saddleback plus working as Student Director for another. Kim is planning on traveling to France next year through an international exchange service. Afterwards she will be attending UCI, and later a private college in Northern California.

Mother Abbess

Stephanie Arbizu, a senior, has been in Fiddler on the Roof, Annie Get Your Gun, Dessert Theatre, and Dinner Theatre. Stephanie is also active in the Saddleback Singers and the newly formed Saddleback Jazz Choir. I really enjoy the play. I've met a lot of new people and I've learned many things. I plan to go to college and major in Music Education, minor in the Theatre Arts, and also do community theatre.

The Directors

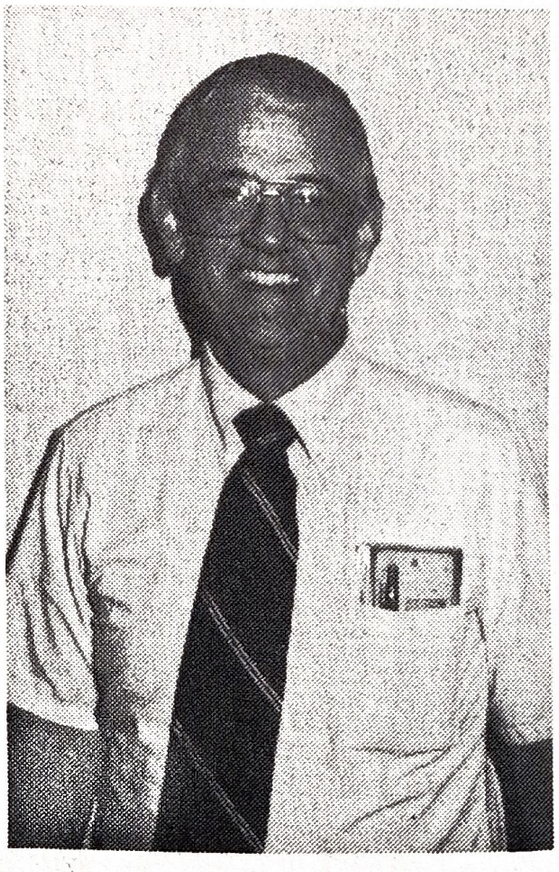
Tricia De Paul has been Saddleback's drama teacher for the past two years. Prior to her teaching position at Saddleback she worked professionally with the L.P. Repertoire. Miss De Paul is a graduate of Youngstown State University in Ohio and has been in college and community theatre for many years.

TRICIA DE PAUL, DRAMA DIRECTOR

Mr. Evans has been teaching vocal music and orchestra at Saddleback since 1979. This is the fifth musical Mr. Evans has produced. "This is the third time I have been involved with a production of "The Sound of Music" and the story seems more exciting every time", said Mr. Evans. "I think it's the cast that makes this show exciting for me, especially the seniors."

When Mr. Evans grows up he would like to be rich and handsome!



HARRY EVANS, MUSICAL DIRECTOR

Artistic Directors

Scott Linn, originally from Iowa, is Saddleback's Choreographer for The Sound of Music. Scott has directed and choreographed such shows as Grease, Once Upon a Mattress and Bye-Bye Birdie. He received a Bachelor's degree in Theater and Dance from Iowa State and became the Performing Arts Director for the University, 1979-1980.

SCOTT LINN, CHOREOGRAPHER

Jay Bradley is Saddleback's full-time accompanist. He has been involved with such professional theater productions as Pirates of Penzance, The Beth Show, Man of La Mancha, Guys and Dolls, Company and Perky Splits Up. In addition to being the Assistant Musical Director for The Sound of Music, Jay is also the accompanist for Sebastian's/West Dinner Theater in San Clemente.
